

Technische Universität Berlin

Technische Universität Berlin offers an open position:

Research assistant - 0.65 working time - salary grade E13 TV-L Berliner Hochschulen

Faculty I - Institute of Philosophy, History of Literature, Science, and Technology / Social Studies of Science and Technology

Reference number: I-813/19 (starting at 01/01/20 / until 31/12/2022 / closing date for applications 29/11/19)

Working field: The aim of the project „Functions and Consequences of Unemployment in Researchers' Careers“ is to explore the – field specific – impact of unemployment in researchers' careers on research practices, the ways in which research activities are continued during unemployment, and on the continuation of careers. We will identify the conditions under which a successful continuation of an academic career is possible despite unemployment, and the mechanisms that link unemployment and the subsequent research career.

Tasks include participation in the conceptual preparation, conduct and analysis of the planned empirical studies (qualitative interviews, qualitative content analysis) in Germany. It is possible to develop a dissertation topic on the basis of the data collected in the empirical studies. Further information on the project can be obtained from Jochen Gläser (Jochen.Glaeser@tu-berlin.de).

Requirements:

- Successfully completed university degree (Master, Diploma or equivalent) in a social sciences discipline with a focus on one of the areas: Sociology of Science, Professions, Organisations or Work as well as the willingness to familiarise with the other areas
- Excellent German and English language skills
- High degree of independence and commitment in the organisation and realisation of predominantly qualitative empirical studies
- Knowledge in statistical analysis is desirable
